Pricing Strategy

The proper evaluation and pricing of your property is key to attracting interest and securing a qualified buyer. We work with you to set the highest possible asking price for the property and adjust if necessary as the process continues. We are pricing experts and use comparative and robust data to support our recommendations.

Effective Marketing

We have various multiple-point marketing plans to accommodate your property's marketing needs. Any plan that we develop will be comprehensive and specifically adapted to attract the right types of qualified buyers. We have a robust network of listing publishers, media partners and personal contacts to get your listing sold.

25 Point Marketing Plan

- 1 Discuss Price Strategy
- 2 Inspect home for "Sale Preventing Defects"
- 3 Evaluate Sellers Net Proceeds Sheet
- 4 Evaluate for Staging, Clearing, Cleaning, etc.
- 5 Confirm all Instructions for showing the home
- 6 Provide Seller with "Showing Checklist"
- 7 Hire Photographer
- 8 Hire Videographer
- 9 Create Floor Plan
- 10 Signage (if applicable)
- 11 Professional Photo Session
- 12 Professional Recording Session
- 13 Review of all Photography/Videography
14. Submit listing information to Residential Listing Service, for exposure to all New York

- Paint walls and refinish floors where needed.
- Fix any broken items.
- Clean mirrors.
- Photograph the results.

Glossary of Terms

Below are common terms and definitions you might come across when looking for an apartment in New York City. Some of these may be used differently in other parts of the country so please make sure you familiarize yourself with them and avoid any unnecessary confusions.

Agency:

A legal relationship between a principal and his agent arising from a contract in which the principal engages the agent to perform certain acts on the principal behalf.

Appraisal:

An opinion or estimate of the value of a property.

Assessment:

The amount of tax or special payment due to a municipality or association. This is applicable in condo buildings and co-ops where assessments can often amount to significant monthly expenses.

Counter Offer:

A rejection of an offer to buy or sell, with a simultaneous substitute offer.

Deed:

A written document, property signed and delivered, that conveys title to real property. It is usually signed and handed over during closing.

Equity:

Interest or value that the owner has in real estate over and above the liens against it. Grantee:

The party to whom the title to real property is conveyed is the grantee or the buyer.

Grantor:

Anyone who gives a deed is the grantor.

Glossary of Terms

Inspection:

A physical scrutinizing review of property or of documents.

Lien:

A charge against property making it security for the payment of a debt, judgment, mortgage, or taxes. A lien is a type of encumbrance. A specific lien is against certain property only, while a general lien is against all of the property owned by the debtor.

Market Value:

The theoretical highest price a buyer, willing but not compelled to buy, would pay and the lowest price a seller, willing but not compelled to sell, would accept.

Points:

Fees paid to lenders to induce them to make a mortgage loan. Each point equals 1% of the loan principal. Points have the effect of reducing the amount of money advanced by the lender.

Purchase and Sale Agreement:

A written agreement between seller and purchaser in which the purchaser agrees to buy certain real estate and the seller agrees to sell upon terms of the agreement. Also called offer and acceptance, contract of sale, and earnest money contract.

Zoning:

legal mechanism for local governments to regulate the use of privately owned real property by specific application of police power to prevent conflicting land uses and promote orderly development. All privately owned land within the jurisdiction is placed within designated zones that limit the type and intensity of development permitted.

Evaluating Market Trends

We consistently review published annual, quarterly, monthly and daily reports on the Manhattan and Brooklyn real estate sales market. We also comb through recent sales in your building, research your building's sales history, adjusting for variables such as views, floors, condition, etc. We have access to most comprehensive data available with a network of specialists to answer any questions that may arise.
